- To create a guideline for European sport organization.

Target audience

- >sports managers of Italian and Portuguese sport associations
- >local actors involved on issues related to education, youth policies and sport
- >Italian and Portuguese sport coaches (in particular those who attended the STAR international school in April 2021)

*Brainstorming guidelines

At the end of the seminar there will be a moment of brainstorming, where participants can share ideas on this two topics:

- Sport can be a valuable tool for promoting important human values such as social inclusion, diversity, tolerance, respect, and a sense of belonging to the community. How, in your opinion, can sport organizations and programs help young people resist radicalization and violent extremism?
- What are the key points a sport organization have to take in mind, in order to fight against radicalization and social exclusion?

The discussion will be informal, and anyone is welcome to participate; however, if you wish to discuss a specific argument, please indicate this in the last section of the registration form.

You will be contacted as soon as possible to ensure that you have satisfactory time to express yourself.
